January 24-26th

Winter Birding Weekend with Joan Collins

Enjoy a weekend of birding trips in the Adirondacks this winter. Participants will look for winter irruptive species such as Bohemian Waxwings, and winter finch species such as Red and White-winged Crossbills, Pine Siskins, Evening Grosbeaks, Pine Grosbeaks, and more, along with year-round boreal residents such as Ruffed Grouse, Black-backed Woodpecker, Canada Jay, and Boreal Chickadee.

Joan will lead field trips on both days. Both Saturday and Sunday morning, meet outside the Adirondack Hotel at 7 a.m. (near the bridge over Long Lake on Route 30). Participants can drive in their own vehicles, or car-pool, if they are comfortable, to reduce the number of cars in the train. Registration is required to attend the field trips. There is a maximum of 20 participants for each field trip. The Winter Birding Weekend is sponsored by the Long Lake Parks and Recreation Department & cosponsored by Northern New York Audubon.

Contact Joan Collins to register at JoanCollins@ADKAvian.com or 315-244-7127.

Come celebrate Camryn Hosley and Griffin Farr as they take on Lake Placid in their Senior Night game! Put on your Long Lake gear and wear it with pride as our community cheers them on!

January 27th
Writing Circle

530-7pm. CVW Long Lake Public Library.

Join us to meet other writers to grow your craft in a fun, supportive space. (This is not a writing workshop.) The group provides a supportive environment where writers work freely on various forms and genres, exploring pieces developed on their own. Pre-registration is not required. Free, and all ages are welcome to attend.

January 28th
Town Board Meeting

7pm. Long Lake Town Hall

January 31st

Mike Norris Ice Fishing Derby - Raquette Lake

The 25th Annual Mike Norris Ice Fishing Derby will take place in Raquette Lake on Saturday, January 31st.

The Mike Norris Ice Fishing Derby happens every year in Raquette Lake on the last Saturday of January.

Fish for Lake Trout, Brook Trout, Perch and Salmon. Registration begins at 6am at the Raquette Lake Fire Hall.

First line in at 7am, last line out at 3pm, final weigh-ins concluded by 3:30pm.

Sponsored by the Raquette Lake Fish and Game Club.

There will be cash prizes and plaques for winners.

Hot chocolate and snacks provided throughout the day.

Registration is available through the Raquette Lake Facebook Group Page.

The Mike Norris Fishing Derby is to honor the memory of Mike Norris who was an avid outdoorsman with a deep commitment to providing safety and learning courses through the Raquette Lake Fish and Game Club. A hiking trail situated on State Route 28 between Raquette Lake and Inlet is also dedicated to Norris.
